3D Effects

Light and dark colors are used to make shapes look three dimensional (3D).

When light shines on an object it creates highlights and shadows.

When light shines on the front of an object, the center is light and the edges are in shadow.
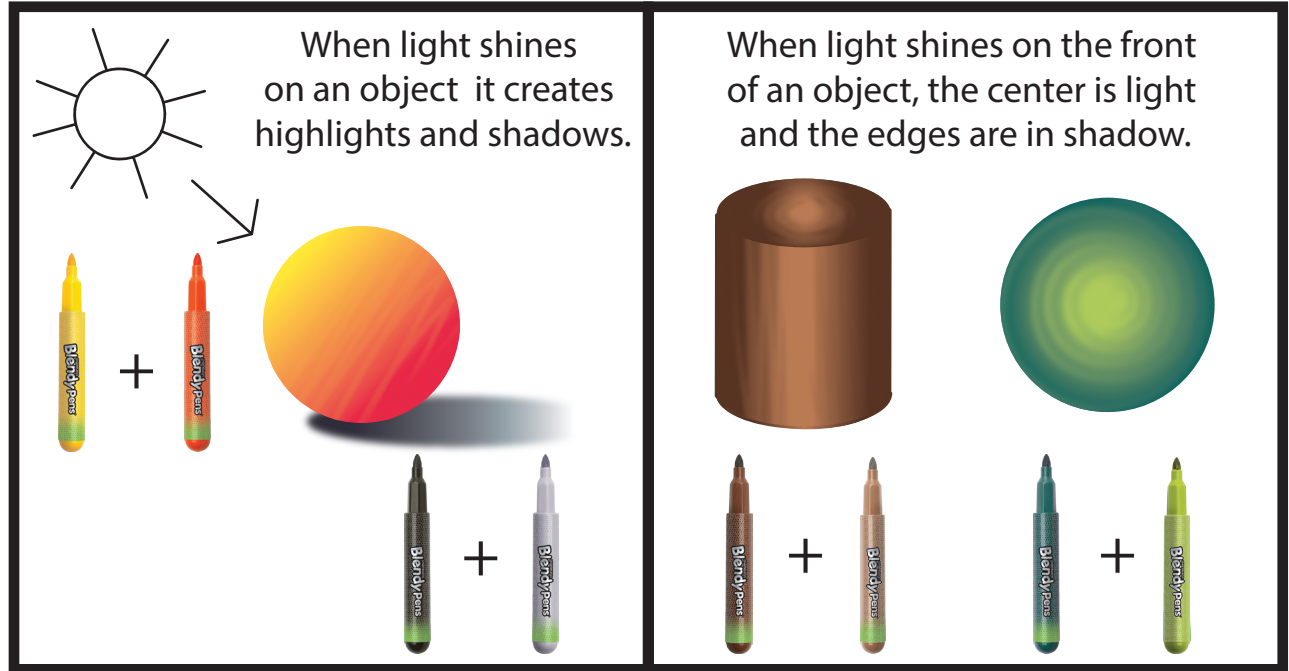

Your turn!

Use light and dark colors to create a 3D drawing!